

What is a BUT ?

- BUT means « bachelor universitaire de technologie »
- 3 years program in all kinds of fields
- Possibility to continue your studies at master's level after

What is a BTS, BTSA, BTSM ?

- BTS means « Brevet de technicien supérieur »
- BTSA means « Brevet de technicien supérieur agricole », speciality in agrarian/agricultural training
- BTSM means « Brevet de technicien supérieur maritime », speciality in maritime/naval training
- 2 years program, focused on professional training
- Possibility to continue in « Licence professionnelle » after

What is a DCG ?

- DCG means « diplôme de comptabilité et de gestion » = accounting diploma
- 3 years program equivalent to a bachelor
- You can continue your studies to obtain the DSCG (diplôme supérieur de comptabilité et de gestion – master)
- You need 3 more years of training at a public accountant office to obtain the diplôme d'expertise comptable to become a certified public accountant

What is a DEUST ?

- DEUST means « diplôme d'études universitaires scientifiques et techniques »
- 2 years program, focused on professional training and in all kinds of fields
- Possibility to continue your studies in « Licence professionnelle » after

How to apply for foreign students ?

BUT and DEUST : On Etudes en France website

BTS, BTSA, BTSM and DCG : On Parcoursup website